05 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
06 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

07 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,) CASE NO. MJ 18 – 055
08 Plaintiff,)
09 v.) DETENTION ORDER
10 MICHAEL TURNER,)
11 Defendant.)
12

13 Offenses charged in Complaint:

14 Count 1: Possession of crack cocaine with intent to distribute

15 Count 2: Possession of firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking offense

16 Date of Detention Hearing: February 15, 2018.
17

18 The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based 19 upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that 20 no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure
21 the safety of other persons and the community.

01 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

02 (1) The United States alleges that defendant is a principal figure in a drug trafficking
03 organization distributing crack cocaine and other controlled substances in the Pioneer
04 Square area of Seattle. Clyde McKnight is alleged to be the leader of this 05 organization. Patrick Tables and Jonathan Rushing are also allegedly members. The 06 affidavit in support of the Complaint documents a drug transaction in which defendant
07 Turner, Tables and Rushing all participated.

08 (2) During a search of defendant's residence, law enforcement officers secured the
09 following:

10 (a) Firearms. There were five, all in defendant's bedroom. Three assault rifles were 11 in the closet. A loaded Glock was in the drawer of the bedside table on 12 defendant's side of the bed. Another loaded Glock was under the mattress on his 13 wife's side. She told law enforcement that all the weapons belonged to defendant.
14 Defendant argues that he is a "recreational shooter" and had permits for the 15 weapons. While this might well be true, it does not explain, for example, the need
16 for loaded Glockes in the bedside table and under the mattress. There clearly were 17 other purposes for his possession of highly dangerous weapons.

18 (b) Drugs. 22.1 grams of crack cocaine, which the United States contends represented
19 about 200 doses. There was also a large quantity of marijuana.

20 (c) Cash. A safe in the residence contained about $39,000.

21 (3) These facts establish that defendant, if released, would pose a significant danger to 22 other persons and the community.

01 (4) Defendant has some history of using cocaine and other drugs. It is not clear, however,
02 that he has done so in the recent past.

03 (5) Defendant is a life-long resident of King County, and lives with his family. This 04 suggests he might not be a serious risk to flee from the area if released. But his
05 criminal record includes a clear and long-standing pattern of failures to make his court
06 appearances as required. The charges in this case, and the potential penalties, are 07 more serious than any he has faced before. There might, therefore, be substantially
08 more incentive, for him to leave the area, if released. If flight risk were the only
09 problem, the court could attempt to address it with appropriate limitations and 10 conditions.

11 (6) There are no conditions, however, which would reasonably assure that defendant
12 would not pose a danger to other persons and the community.

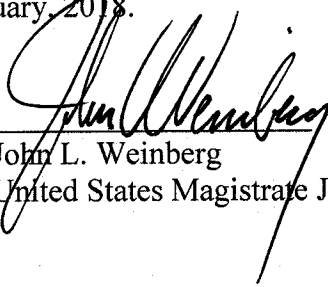

13 [Note: the court does not rely on the rebuttable presumption in making this determination,
14 because there has been no proceeding which adequately establishes probable cause to believe
15 defendant committed the offenses charged in the Complaint. There has, as yet, been no
16 Preliminary Hearing on the Complaint; and no Indictment].

17
18 It is therefore ORDERED:

- 19 1. Defendant shall be detained pending further proceedings and committed to the custody
20 of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent
21 practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody
22 pending appeal;

- 01 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 02 counsel;
- 03 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the 04 person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver
05 the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in 06 connection with a court proceeding;
- 07 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel
08 for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial
09 Services Officer.
